

Kids for Missions

Throughout the weekend, kids in grades K-3 are encouraged to attend the Kids for Missions program! Kids for Missions will run simultaneously to the evening programs both Friday and Saturday. Following the Good News in the Desert theme, Egypt will be the country of focus, and kids will learn how God cared for His people in the desert and gave them a new purpose for their lives.

- Learn about Egypt
- Make fun crafts
- Enjoy desert-themed food

Morning Gatherings

For those not attending the 9:30am or 11am services, all adults are encouraged to join us (in the Sanctuary at 9:30am and Café 19 at 11am) to hear from the Africa Team as they share about their recent trip to the DR Congo and Tanzania.

About our Keynote Speaker

Dr. Craig Ott, on faculty at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School (TEDS) since 2002, has many years of practical and academic experience in missions work. He spent 21 years in Germany with ReachGlobal (formerly EFCA International Mission) and has planted churches in Munich, Ingolstadt, Neumarkt and Markt Indersdorf, Germany as well as in Schaumburg, IL.

From 1995 to 2002, Dr. Ott served as Central Europe Church Planting Consultant for ReachGlobal and, from 1998 to 2002, he taught at the Akademie für Weltmission in Korntal, Germany, where he continues to teach regularly as an adjunct professor. He has taught or consulted national and mission leaders in forty different countries.

Dr. Ott currently occupies the ReachGlobal Chair of Mission, which was established to link the mission agency and seminary, integrating mission theory and practice. He is also a prolific author. Three of his books were voted by International Bulletin of Mission Research as among the top ten or fifteen most significant mission books in their publication year. Two of his articles are among the top ten most read articles in the journal Missiology.

Dr. Ott and his wife Alice, also on faculty at TEDS, live in Buffalo Grove, IL, and have three grown sons. His hobbies include bicycling, film, and guitar.
