

Together We Will

The theme for this year's conference, Today I Will..., reminds us that our daily lives are a mission field. No matter near or far, God provides us with moments every day to point people to Jesus. Let's commit to seeing the Divine appointments rather than the interruptions of life. Then, together, we will reach Sheboygan County and beyond with the love of Christ!

Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful.

1 Corinthians 13:4-5 (ESV)

Preschool childcare (babies-kindergarten) will be available during the evening services on Friday and Saturday. Regular children's programming will take place on Sunday morning, with a special focus on missions!

ABOUT OUR KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Timothy Sisk is a Professor of Intercultural Ministries and Program Head at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. He has a passion for church planting, the history of missions, and global theology.

Dr. Sisk has been the pastor at Faith Fellowship Church in Oak Brook, IL since 2001. Prior to this, Tim and his wife Donna served the Lord as missionaries for fourteen years in Japan and Bolivia. They were involved both in church planting and theological education.

Tim and Donna have been married for 38 years. They have four children and five grandchildren. Tim is a graduate of Tennessee Temple University (B.A.), Dallas Theological Seminary (Th.M.) and Fuller Theological Seminary (D.Min.). He has co-authored The Third Wave Movement and Missions Today and co-edited Reaching the City: Reflections on Urban Mission for the Twenty-first Century.

Speaking of Missions...

Consider how you might be involved in any of the following opportunities:

- Attend the Cuban-themed dinner and cake auction on March 22 to support students and leaders going on a mission trip to Miami, FL this summer.
- Volunteer at Sheboygan's Anchor of Hope Medical Center
- Bring the Gospel to kids by volunteering to help with our Awana program
