FOR THE CHURCH FAMILY

The Student Ministries Service Projects will be Wednesday, May 2 from 6:45-7:45pm. If any of our older church family could use help from the students that night, please contact Pastor Aaron.

Looking for resources on adoption and foster care? Check out the following books in the church library:

- Handbook on Thriving as an Adoptive Family by David and Renee Sanford
- Faith & Foster Care by Dr. John DeGarmo
- Adopted for Life by Russell D. Moore

Online registration for VBS begins April 23 at www.e-free-family.com. The theme is Follywood where children learn how to be careful what they watch and what online games they play, and how to influence their world for Jesus. Packed with skits, music, crafts, and games, it's sure to be an exciting time!

We are hiring a full-time Director of Children's Ministries. The applicant should have a four year degree in Christian Education or a related discipline, a vibrant and healthy spiritual life, be a member (or willing to become a member) of the Sheboygan Evangelical Free Church, have experience in working with children and/or families, have proven ability in the area of attracting and training volunteers, have a strategic mind in terms of a creative approach to discipling children under the mission and vision of the church, and love the unity that comes from collaborating with a growing ministry staff. Please submit resumes by May 4 to Michael V. Please pray for the interview team: Michael V., Aaron Brown, Jenny E., Carissa K. and Jon MacDonald.

I would like to thank everyone that heard of my heart attack, prayed for me and sent me messages. I am so very grateful for all the prayers on my behalf and all the good wishes. It has meant so much to me. Thank you so much. May God's blessing continue to be showered upon each of you.
Chris S.

I have my ticket to return home on Wednesday, April 25. I want to thank this church family for all the care and love shown to Daniel, Elsa and me during this transition time of our lives. Many blessings as you continue serving God in this church family. Please continue to pray. Praise God with us.
Roger S.

UPCOMING EVENT

If you are a caregiver to people with life-limiting illnesses, or will be in the future, a hospice conversation will help you prepare and support your loved one's wishes. Luann Travis from Sharon S. Richardson Community Hospice and Kristie Ahlborg, FCN Coordinator, will be discussing Hospice: A Family Conversation at the Thursday, May 24 Forever Faithful potluck/program from 6-8pm. Watch for sign-up sheets beginning next Sunday. You'll want to plan now to attend!

Bring the Church to Them

TODAY!

Not everyone who wants to come to church can make it . . . but the church can go to them! Join us in "bringing the church" to our friends at nursing/assisted living homes!

Meet at church at 2:15pm. Then we'll head out to our locations.

Once at the locations, we'll fan out throughout our sites and invite people to come sing, hear a brief devotional, and socialize. The services at each location will begin at 3pm. Come encourage hearts and be encouraged.

MEN'S WILD GAME BANQUET

THIS FRIDAY, 6:30pm, Multi-Purpose Room

Who? All men ages 10+, whether you hunt/fish or not

What? A men's event intended to give opportunity to share our resources, to learn how to become better hunters, and to boldly share the hope we have in Jesus

- Bring a dish to pass (made from meat taken on a hunt or fishing trip, OR a salad or dessert)
- Bring your hunting buddies and your sons (you don't have to be a hunter to enjoy the presentation!)
- Our presenters will be Tom DuBois and Andy Kaminski of Rugged Cross Outdoors, a ministry committed to inspire every man to go out into the outdoor world and share the good news of Jesus Christ.

How much? Come prepared to chip-in in appreciation of our presenters. We suggest $5 per person. All proceeds benefit Rugged Cross Outdoors.

Sign up TODAY in the Welcome Center or by Tuesday via the church office or church website (www.e-free-family.com).

Parent-Child Dedications

Parent-Child Dedication is a purposeful recognition of God's kindness in blessing us with children as we ask Him to provide wisdom in the raising of our children.

Our next Parent-Child Dedication will be Mother's Day, May 13.

If you are interested in participating in this special service, please contact the church office by May 6. Dedications may be scheduled during any of the three morning services.

For more information about Parent-Child Dedications, pick up a brochure in the Welcome Center or church office.

The National Day of Prayer has great significance for us as a nation, as it enables us to recall and to teach the way in which our founding fathers sought the wisdom of God when faced with critical decisions. It stands as a call for us to humbly come before God, seeking His guidance for our leaders and His grace upon us as a people (www.nationaldayofprayer.org).

The theme for 2018 is Unity, emphasizing Ephesians 4:3: "eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace" (ESV).

We invite you to come on Thursday, May 3, at 7pm as we join millions of Americans across the nation in prayer. There will be a brief devotional by Dr. Gary Hylander, a time of singing, and a time of prayer.
