The book of Proverbs unlocks the key to both, helping us to face very real challenges such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • handling our freedom, independence, and material resources wisely • keeping ourselves sexually pure • practicing biblical femininity in a world that scorns us for it • sustaining God-glorifying marriages • elevating biblical priorities ahead of day-to-day pressures Exploring the timeless counsel in the book of Proverbs, A Woman’s Wisdom teaches us to know the very Author of wisdom and to apply his relevant, how-to riches.	2 nd Tuesday of month 6:30pm Kohler

5.	“The Gospel Comes With a House Key” by Rosaria Butterfield What did God use to draw a radical, committed unbeliever to himself? Did God take her to an evangelistic rally? Or, since she had her doctorate in literature, did he use something in print? No, God used an invitation to dinner in a modest home, from a humble couple who lived out the gospel daily, simply, and authentically. With this story of her conversion as a backdrop, Rosaria Butterfield invites us into her home to show us how God can use this same “radical, ordinary hospitality” to bring the gospel to our lost friends and neighbors. Such hospitality sees our homes as not our own, but as God’s tools for the furtherance of his kingdom as we welcome those who look, think, believe, and act differently from us into our everyday, sometimes messy lives—helping them see what true Christian faith really looks like.	1 st Thursday of month 6:30pm Sheboygan
6.	“Choosing Gratitude: Your Journey to Joy” by Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth Gratitude is a choice. If we fail to choose it, by default we choose ingratitude. And once allowed into the heart, ingratitude does not come by itself, but with other seedy companions that only succeed in stealing joy. Choosing Gratitude: Your Journey to Joy challenges and equips the reader to live a life of intention, a life based on thankfulness for the freedom Christ has provided and for the blessings of others.	4 th Thursday of month 6:30 to 8pm Cleveland
